Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Isaiah 55:1-5

¹Ho, everyone who thirsts,
 come to the waters;
and you that have no money,
 come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
 without money and without price.
²Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread,
 and your labor for that which does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
 and delight yourselves in rich food.
³Incline your ear, and come to me;
 listen, so that you may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
 my steadfast, sure love for David.
⁴See, I made him a witness to the peoples,
 a leader and commander for the peoples.
⁵See, you shall call nations that you do not know,
 and nations that do not know you shall run to you,
because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel,
 for he has glorified you.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God.

Cantor:

3. You are just in all things, lov - ing and ho - ly.

D.C.

You are near to all who call your name, who cry out in love and truth!

Second Reading

Romans 9:1-5

¹I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit—²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; ⁵to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen

Holy Gospel

Matthew 14:13-21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹³Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. ¹⁵When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” ¹⁶Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” ¹⁷They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” ¹⁸And he said, “Bring them here to me.” ¹⁹Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Statement Of Faith

We trust in God, through whom all things are being created, who loves us, and desires for us a life abundant in relationships, learning, joy, and peace.

We trust in Jesus, a true child of God, who taught us how to live in peace with justice for all,
so that the Kingdom of God might become real here on earth.
In speaking truth to power, in accepting his death, and in rising again,
Jesus showed us what God intends for us:

lives lived without fear or anxiety,
knowing God will be with us,
trusting that death is not the end,
but a transformation that returns us to the Creator.

We trust in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God that blows where it will,
that animates our spirits, encourages us to be disciples, guides our understanding, informs our speaking, sustains us when we stumble, and stands with us in the time of trial.

The Creator, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, living in community, are one God.

We join this community at birth, affirm our commitment to it in baptism,
and strengthen it in the breaking of the bread and in the prayers.
We trust that God will forgive our sins, transform our lives, and remain with us always. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Who can separate us from the love of God? What can separate us from the love of Christ? Let our hearts now respond to such overwhelming love as we pray together in the Spirit, saying: Hear us, O Lord.

That God will renew the merciful covenant made with us in love, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

That the ministers of the gospel may be people of genuine conversion and prophetic voice, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

That the bread of life may be shared one day by all Christians at a common table of praise, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

For the sick and the suffering in our world, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

For those preparing for baptism, that they may hear the invitation of God to come to the waters of regeneration and there find abundant life, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

For the newly wedded couples in our community, for expectant parents, and for those who nurture children, that all may be fed at the breasts of a loving God and find strength in lives of service, we pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

For all those in any need, especially Roger Bergkamp, Glen Zimmer, Candace DeGagne, Nancy & Greg Hunter, Eddie Blaha, Tia Martins, Ashley Kostiuk, Kris & Steve McClenney, Robin Monahan, Karen Race, Michael Valdez, Meghan Finlayson, Mike Solomon, Dave Karraffa, Karen Cendejas, & Sue Vidor. We pray:
Hear us, O Lord.

We pray for all hospital chaplaincies, counseling chaplaincies and Spiritual Directors throughout ECMN. Pray for your faith community nurses, health ministers and all those who minister to the sick. For St. Johns' Anglican Church (Fort Frances, Ontario), and Faith United Church (Int'l Falls). We pray:

Hear us, O Lord.

Let us be mindful of the dead. That they may come into the fullness of life, united with God in the communion of the faithful, we pray:

Hear us, O Lord.

O God, your loving care for us calls for our gratitude. Multiply once again your abundant mercy toward us; renew your covenant with us; and let our hearts overflow with Godly love for others. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Rabbi and Lord, now in the Spirit and forever.

Celebrant says

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth; mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

All who are able, please kneel.

The Celebrant says

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

The Deacon then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

Minister and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds (Lines in Bold are spoken by the People)

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

One who comes in your name; Bless'd the One as Bro - ther we claim;
Bless'd our God for - ev - er to reign; Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly One.

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

Amen Louvres de Deus

The people may stand or kneel.

The Celebrant then continues

As our Savior Christ has taught us,
we now pray,

People and Celebrant

O Great Spirit, Creator above, we honour your name as sacred and holy.
Bring your good road to us,
where the beauty of your ways in the spirit world above is reflected in the earth below.

Provide for us day by day—
the elk, the buffalo, and the salmon.
The corn, the squash, the saskatoons and the wild rice.
All the things we need for each day.

Release us from the things we have done wrong,
in the same way we release others
for the things done wrong to us.

Guide us away from the things that tempt us to stray from your good road, and set us free from the evil one and ways that are worthless.
So be it.
